

Consent Form for Photography and Recorded Images

Exeter Harriers recognises the need to ensure the welfare and safety of all young people in athletics.

In accordance with the UK Athletics Welfare policy and procedures, we will not permit photographs, video or other images of children/young people to be taken without the consent of the parents/carers and children/young people.

Exeter Harriers will follow the guidance for the use of photographs a copy of which is available from England Athletics Head of Welfare or www.englandathletics.org

Exeter Harriers will take all possible steps to ensure these images are used solely for the purposes they are intended. If you become aware that these images are being used inappropriately you should inform the Exeter Harriers Welfare Officer immediately.
